

OrCam MyEye Independence Everywhere You Go

What is it?

A revolutionary, easy to use, hands-free wearable assistive technology which converts visual information into audio in real time

Who is it for?

Those currently benefiting include people who are blind or visually impaired; including those with:

- Macular Degeneration
- Diabetic Retinopathy
- Glaucoma
- Stargardt Disease
- Optic Neuropathy
- Traumatic Brain Injury
- Stroke Survivors and more...

Benefits:

1. Provides increased independence and confidence by empowering people to overcome challenges in activities of daily living
2. Greater freedom and functionality with hands free voice activated technology, simply say "Hey OrCam"
3. Easy to use anytime and anywhere. No WiFi or cloud connectivity required ensuring privacy
4. Read anything, books, menus, bank and credit card statements, emails or text from any surface; enjoy an independent shopping experience, identify family, friends and more

